Rock Creek School

We, the senior class, dedicate this book to our parents who so faithfully taught us the basis of education. By their good example, we learned to play, to enjoy the comforts of home, to work with each other, and to worship together.

What Is The Class Of 1962 Doing Today?

The year is 1982, just twenty years later.

First we find Viv Bear standing all day on the banks of the Wabash in a lifeguard suit hoping some young man will fall in Last week she pushed one in, for practice she said - - - Sam Brown, we see in a field plowing with his team of mules. It seems he is still stubborn as he always was. He can't see putting money into a new fangled thing called a tractor. - - - Stuart Cart is now a wool manufacturer. He has just invented a new cloth in fact he is wearing a suit made of it now. It is so light weight, it is invisible. - - - Linda Clampitt is now working as an x-ray technician. She is working with Dr. Pope. The doctor helps Linda to develop in the dark room. Any developments yet, Linda?

Jo Ann Creviston is now in Dr. Poppey's office applying for a nursing job. She just loves to work with sick people. - - - Joyce Eckelbarger is working as an attendant at the Marathon, and everyday she tries to sell Ron Greene candy kisses. Ron has charged so many kisses, Joyce's dad is going to claim Ron as a dependent. - - - Bob Fisher is peddling fish for his grandpa's store, on a bicycle built for two. He hopes someday, he can take over the BOOMING business. - - - Marion Flemming, a 5-Star Admiral on a battle ship still crying, "I want my feet on the ground."

Jan Greeno is in Africa designing a dress for an elephant to be worn only in the evening. Her latest creations can be seen on all the best dressed animals. - - - Jerry Hite, sitting behind a vice-president's desk, smoking a 3¢ cigar saying, "Flying high - - fast service." - - - Rosie Lahr has just bought 51% interest in the Gate Way Inn. She has just turned it into a lavish night club in the steaming metropolis of Markle. - - Bob Link in the Maternity Ward of the Huntington County Hospital is carrying a basketball for his new grandson. He plans to start training him soon, perhaps tomorrow.

Michelle McFadden, we find in Alaska, selling deep freezers to the Eskimos. Last year she was selling large black stew pots to the natives in Africa, until they tried to give her a hot bath in one. - - - Ron Meier is in the police station in Warren, saying, "I didn't do it." - - - Edith Morrow is secretary for the president of the Ford Motor Company she loves to sit on the boss's lap and take dictation. - - - We find Gary Pursifull kicking Joe Louis in the shins saying, "You aren't suppose to hit a fellow wearing glasses." Gary might lose his temper, Joe, you had better watch out.

Jane Reber is in Minneapolis, Minnesota showing Betty Crocker how to bake a cake. - - - Mike Reber now is the biggest hog producer in the United States. - - - Sondra Shrock is still eating low calory foods to keep her nice figure trim and neat. - - - Darlene Slagel trying to bite into a special clam dinner with her new false teeth.

Dewey Sparks is going fishing for blue gills in the butterfly swamps. Sorry, Dewey, I don't think you'll find any. - - - Don Sparks is sewing patches on his britches while his wife is out milking the cows. - - - Ron Sparks is still in school, but he hopes to graduate with his grandchildren. Keep trying Ron! - - - Ron Stephans is driving a greyhound bus hoping someday they will have a stewardess on the bus. We're afraid that will never be Ron, because the drivers couldn't keep their eyes on the road.

Jim Stockman, we see trying to run an ostrich down, cause they are short on eggs. The hens have formed a labor union and refuses to work on Saturdays, Sunday, and Holidays. - - - Shirley Stults can be seen on The Lawrence Welk Show playing 5 foot - 2, eyes of blue on her brother's trombone. She says, "Sometimes, she regrets learning how to play it." (So do we, Shirley) - - - Jerry Tribolet is working in the Markle zoo, standing flat-footed picking leaves from a tree for the giraffes. - - - Sandra Whisenhunt recommends the beauty shop next door for a good permanent.

Senior Poems

Vivian Kay is a quiet one,
But like the rest of us, likes to have fun.
When it comes to dancing, she is the most,
But in anything she does she's not one to boast.

There is a certain young man in our gang:
Samuel Dean Brown is his name.
He is not very little, but he really is smart,
And with every little penny he hates to part.

Now there's one called Jo Ann who likes to sew.
The one she goes with, we surely know.
Take heed, Dick, you've lived by good books;
Now's a fine time to catch a good cook.

Quiet Stuart Cart, who never says much.
Listens while others talk of sports, girls and such.
He plays a sax in our school band.
And serves as Vice President of the Senior Clan.

Bob Fisher is the smiley one of us all,
And when you are with him you'll have a ball,
When it comes to telling jokes he's a whiz
But he's not so good in a history quiz.

Jerry Wayne Hite, our long lean guy,
Is a boy that girls would call very shy.
Underneath it all he can take his pick
Of any gal or any slick chick.

Roseleen Ellen, every ready to smile,
Or stop and talk to you awhile.
May her life be the best that this world can hold;
And may her name be written in the Book of Gold.

Bob Link is sort of dark and tall.
You should see him handle a basketball.
A popular guy and very neat,
Dianne says, "He can't be beat!"

Next comes Jan our temper gal,
But to us all, she's quite a pal.
She lives on fun from day to day,
But that's not all we have to say!

Joyce Eckelbarger is the one we say,
That will be part owner of a '57' Chevrolet.
If things work out right for this gal,
She'll be married a year from now.

Linda Kay, our green eyed brunette,
Has a winsome smile and eyes that "get. "
She likes the boys and vice versa is true,
Of course, she has talent at other things, too.

Michelle a tall, slim, girl in our bunch.
Everyone in class has got a hunch,
That when we've graduated and gone from here,
We can look back and record her a "dear. "

Ron Meier is one who has his joys
With any old car and a bunch of boys.
He gets in early, and that is so
He's not out late like the rest, you know.

Sondra Kay, a very stubborn girl,
Will someday make a guy's hair curl.
To International College she hoped to go,
How to be a secretary, she wants to know.

Jane Ann, who is our brilliant one,
When it comes to lessons, they're always done;
She will be a success, a fact that is true,
Her career is calling, but Ron is, too.

Mike Reber, the darkest of us all,
Loves to make noises in study hall.
Our class isn't complete without this boy.
So may his life be filled with joy.

Marion, the strong man of our gang,
Fair and blue-eyed, he gives the class its tang.
He likes to run around and have fun, too.
Say "Hi" to him, and he has a smile for you.

Darlene Slagel, our quiet lass.
This girl has plenty of class.
She's bashful, mild, and friendly to all,
We know, a nice boy for Darlene will fall.

Now Jerry is the one who is tallest of all.
When standing by Pam, she looks very small.
Whatever he does, wherever he'll be.
He'll remain in our hearts as Jerry Lee.

Sandra Kay is the friendliest gal,
She has lots of gah; is a very good pal.
The future for her may be well planned.
But, who knows where our sandy will land.

Edith Marie, a real smart cooky,
Hopes someday to meet a real bookie.
She wants him to laugh and call her "honey. "
And he must have a pile of money!

Jim Stockman, life-guard of our class,
Hopes someday to find a cute little lass.
His future plans are not yet known
But the thing he'll do will be all his own.

Gary Dean, who is our farmer lad,
Isn't too good, and he's not too bad.
His life is full of barns and cows.
When he sees the girls, he yells and wows.

We have a classmate called Dewey Sparks.
In Government Class, he makes his mark.
He wears good clothes, and always has.
He's the guy that likes to razz.

Ron Stephans, better known as "Red. "
Hasn't let basketball go to his head.
He's the president of the class,
And says Marta Spence is his lass.

Now Ron Sparks is the one who likes to play.
But to tell what he knows would take all day.
So with his "Chevy" and some cute little girl,
He will come back with his heart in a whirl.

Donnie Kay, is a pretty nice guy,
He will make his girl a real good buy.
He goes with a lass named Darlene.
Donnie says, "She's my queen!"

Shirley Stults is a girl in our clan.
Jerry Fusselman is her man.
She plays in the band of Rock Creek High;
We know the band teacher dreads telling her bye.
